Degree College for Women, Kathua in collaboration with District Legal Services Authority Kathua organized an Awareness camp on the theme “It’s all in the mind” to observe National Youth Day on 12-01-2022. The event began with the welcome address by Ms. Shivani Sharma. Adv. Mukesh Talotra and Adv. Ankush Sharma were the resource person of the today’s event. Dr. Sangita Nagari, worthy principal of the college, addressed the students and spoke that the motto of conducting such event is to aware Youth regarding their legal rights and duties. Youth being the boon of society is essential component to cause progressive upliftment in the society so it is important that they must be aware of their rights and duties. As we know in the present era, there is a huge use of social network that has certain advantages and disadvantages with which we come across in our day to day life. Cyber crime is now on peak in these days and how to deal with this problem is one of the main objective of this programme. Being a women ,we all know still the Position of this gender in the society, who faced domestic as well social discrimination and the only way to resolve this problem is to educate female child so that she would be aware about her rights from the very beginning. An Ideal Nation should not be gender biased and for that everyone native to it must have Knowledge of their rights and duties. Dr. Babita Jamwal, convenor CASH committee presented vote of thanks to the today’s resource persons. Among others Prof. Ravinder Kour, Dr. Naresh Sharma , Dr. Poonam Sambyal, Prof. Raj Kumari , Dr. Rajni Khajuria were remain present during the occasion.
