

Lecture on Careers in the Hospitality and Tourism Sector

On December 12, 2024, a lecture on careers in the hospitality and tourism sector was held at Spring Dales School, attended by students from the IIC and CCP in collaboration with the History Department. The event featured several resource persons from the Food Craft Institute Jammu, Department of Skill Development, Government of J&K, who delivered insightful lectures on various career opportunities and pathways in the rapidly growing hospitality and tourism industry.

The lecture emphasized the increasing demand for skilled professionals in areas such as hotel management, travel and tourism consultancy, culinary arts, and event management. The speakers highlighted the importance of practical training, certifications, and the role of government-led initiatives in enhancing employability and preparing students for diverse roles in the sector.

The event saw participation from faculty members Prof. Romika Bassin, Ms Shivangi Sharma non teaching staff and over 31 students, who actively engaged with the resource persons, asking questions and exploring the scope of various career paths. The session proved to be highly informative, providing valuable guidance to students regarding the skills and qualifications needed to excel in this dynamic field.

The lecture concluded with an interactive session and a note of thanks, appreciating the efforts of the resource persons, the organizers, and the enthusiastic participation of the attendees. The event served as a platform to inspire students to consider hospitality and tourism as a promising career choice while aligning their goals with industry trends and opportunities.
