Two-Day Lecture Series on “Planning and Preparation for the Fourth Year under NEP 2020” Held at GDCW Kathua

A two-day lecture series on the topic “Planning and Preparation for the Upcoming Fourth Year under NEP 2020” was successfully held at Government Degree College for Women (GDCW), Kathua. The event was organized by the Career Counselling and Placement Cell and the Institution’s Innovation Council (IIC), in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC).

The entire program was held under the guidance of the Principal, Dr. Savi Behl.

On Day 1, Dr. Sayed Nasir Ali Shah, Head of the Sociology Department, spoke about the structure, purpose, and benefits of the fourth year under NEP 2020. He explained the importance of early planning, interdisciplinary learning, and skill development.

On Day 2, Prof. Romika Bassin, Head of the History Department, discussed how students can plan their studies to match their career goals. She encouraged them to take up research, internships, and explore different subject areas in the fourth year.

After the sessions, Principal Dr. Savi Behl appreciated the efforts of the organizing team. She highlighted the value of such programs in preparing students for the changes under NEP 2020 and mentioned that two similar events had already been conducted earlier.

The event was coordinated by Prof. Romika Bassin, and students participated with great interest.

Faculty members who helped organize the event included Dr. Renu, Dr. Sayed Nasir Ali Shah, Dr. Kamini Kapoor, Dr. Sonika Jasrotia, and Dr. Ajay Sanotra.

The sessions were informative and helpful, and they were well-received by both students and teachers.
