REPORT

GDCW Kathua Organizes Intra-Mural Tug of War Competition

The Department of Physical Education, Government Degree College for Women (GDCW), Kathua organized an Intra-Mural Tug of War Competition in the college premises with great enthusiasm and sportsman spirit.

The competition witnessed active participation from two teams — Team A and Team B — with each team comprising 15 students. The event turned out to be a thrilling contest of strength, coordination, and teamwork. Both teams displayed remarkable determination and unity throughout the competition.

After a spirited and closely fought contest, Team B emerged victorious, securing the winning title amidst loud cheers and encouragement from fellow students and faculty members.

The entire activity was conducted under the patronage of Prof. Jaipal Singh, Principal of the college, whose continuous encouragement motivates students to participate in sports and co-curricular activities. The event was supervised by Mr. Sanjeev Jamwal, PTI of the college, who ensured smooth organization and fair conduct of the competition.

Other faculty members of the college were also present on the occasion and appreciated the efforts of the participants. They highlighted the importance of sports activities in promoting physical fitness, discipline, leadership qualities, and team spirit among students.

The event concluded with words of appreciation for both teams, encouraging students to actively participate in such activities in the future as well.
