GCW Kathua Organizes Lecture on “Future of Management Education”

06/04/2026

The Career Counselling and Placement Cell, IIC, in collaboration with IQAC of the Government Degree College for Women, Kathua, successfully organized a lecture on the theme “Future of Management Education.” The lecture was delivered by Prof. Inderjeet Kour and Prof. Romika Bassin under the guidance of the worthy Principal, Dr. Jaipal Singh.

The session aimed to guide students about emerging trends, career opportunities and the evolving scope of management studies in today’s dynamic global environment. The speakers highlighted the importance of skill development, innovation, entrepreneurship, and digital transformation in shaping the future of management education.

They also provided valuable insights into pursuing an MBA, discussing various specializations, career prospects, and the competencies required for success. Emphasis was laid on informed decision-making, leadership qualities, and adaptability in a competitive professional landscape.

A total of 27 students actively participated in the program, making the session interactive and engaging. The lecture enabled students to gain clarity about management education and explore diverse career opportunities.
