REPORT

Painting Competition

As part of the celebrations of the 80th National Independence Day, Government Degree College for Women, Kathua organized a Painting Competition on the theme 'Depicting Important Events of the Freedom Struggle' on 05 August 2026 in the Geography Laboratory at 10:30 AM. The event aimed to instill a sense of patriotism, promote creativity, and enhance students' awareness of India's glorious freedom struggle. A total of four students participated enthusiastically and showcased their artistic talent through thought-provoking paintings.

The paintings were evaluated by Dr. Seema Jolly (HoD, Home Science) and Dr. Inderjeet Kaur (HoD, Chemistry). After careful evaluation, Harshika of semester 3rd was declared winner of the competition. The College appreciated the enthusiastic participation of all the students and reaffirmed its commitment to promoting patriotic values and creative expression through such activities.
