Principal's Appeal

It gives me immense pleasure and satisfaction that a wonderful issue of the Newsletter titled "SURSARI", the annual number of the News Letter is in our hands after a gap of four years. The entire year has been hectic, the faculty and students have worked vigorously to organise different academic and co-curricular activities in the college. The News Letter speaks volumes about the efforts which the faculty have put into give better exposure to the students in various spheres of College life. It is a proud moment for us that we have been able to document the various activities undertaken during the session 2018-19.

The college, a premier institute of learning and career building, serves as the main gate to all routes leading to success in different areas of professional life. Faculty strives to provide the necessary motivation and guidance to the students with dedication and sincerity in different fields. It is my firm conviction and belief that in addition to providing good academic environment, the students should be exposed to host of co-curricular and extra-curricular activities to develop their personality. This is what we have tried throughout the session 2018-19.

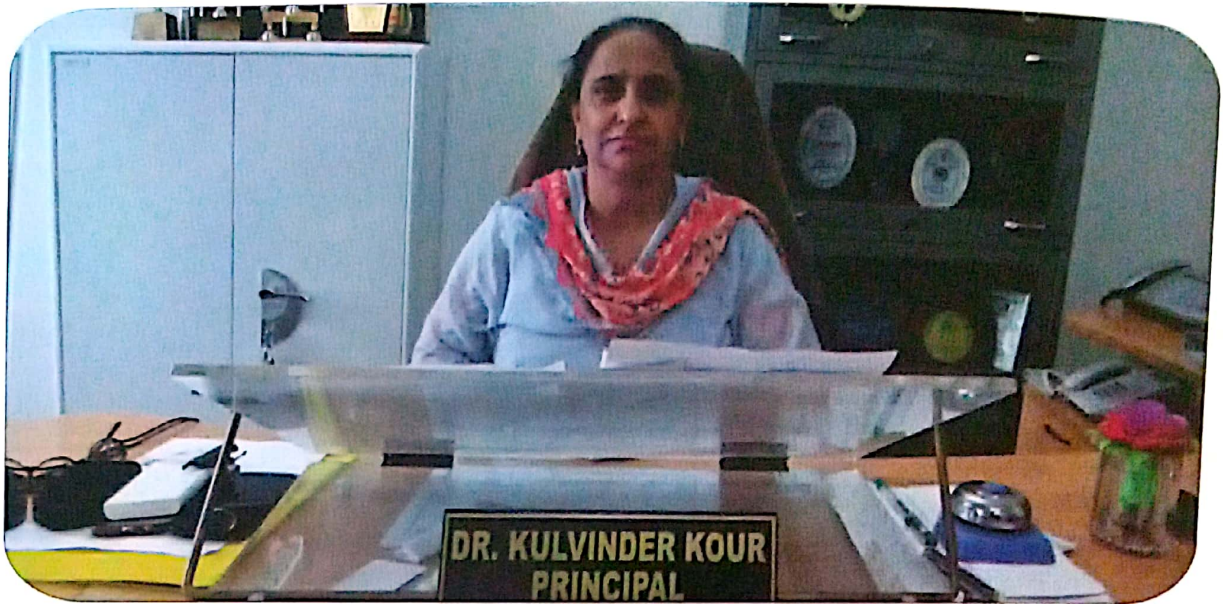

I want to assure all the students that we are fortunate to have a blend of highly dedicated, hardworking and experienced faculty members who will cater well upto your needs and expectations. We envision to scale further heights even though there are internal as well as external challenges looming large over the sky of women college Kathua. We pledge to surmount and overcome the difficulties and challenges with the benign and benevolent grace of the Lord Almighty and united hand of the Colleagues. This institution, established on 25-05-2005, is the only higher centre of learning for girls in Kathua district and team of this college is working hard to provide safe and secure environment to the students. Suggestions from students, faculty members and all the stake holders are welcome to make the institution exemplary. My best wishes to all the students for their forthcoming examinations and future life. I wish all the success to my staff members also.

I am really elated and delighted at this endeavour of the faculty as well as the strenuous efforts of the Editorial Board. I am sure that this humble venture will also fill our students with delight when they find themselves recorded in the "SURSARI".

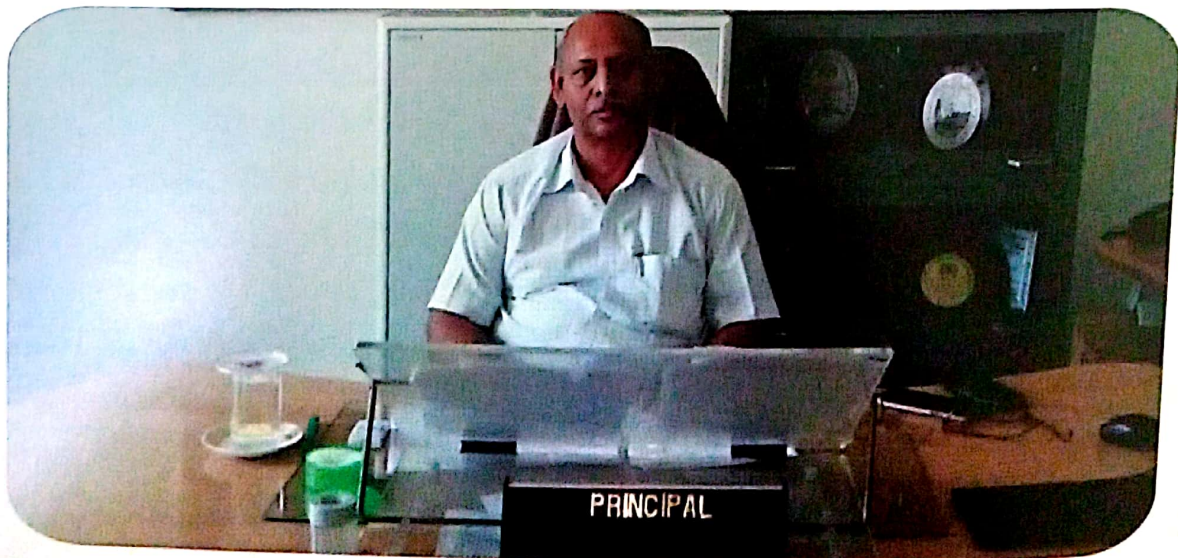

With this noble goal in mind, I appeal to all the stakeholders to contribute their might so that this college grows in a free manner as per the vision of the educators and administrators of the college.

Name: Megha Sethi

Subject: Medical { Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, English. }

Batch: 2013-2016

College: Women Degree College Kathua

Qualification: Masters of Botany. (2016-2018)

About the Institution:-

Women Degree College Kathua is a premiere Institution that works in support of Women education. This college has added best three years of experience and guidance to my life. I was a medical student and the faculty of each of my subjects was very dedicated, talented, experienced and full of recent knowledge about their respective subjects. The knowledge they imparted to the students inside as well as outside the classroom was unmatched. All the classes and the practical work was done punctually and with lots of efforts.

Even the non-teaching staff was very co-operative. The head of the Institution - Principals sir were very generous towards all the students and provided their full support in each and every event happening in the college whether academic or cultural.

All the teachers have played a very crucial role in developing my interest in the subject of Botany in which I further pursued my masters from the University of Jammu. For now, I am planning to indulge further into this subject as I want to enter into the field of research in Botany itself.

From those unexpected answer sheets to those never ending talks & fights,
From those serious lectures to yawning
students

Those colourful days to disciplined &
decent uniforms,

The journey of unmatured brains to responsible person, college life teaches us all

Speaking of my college life which began in the summer of 2013 amidst confusion over my subjects when I chose to opt for humanities despite being from a science background.

I hardly knew anyone plus the humanity subjects which required a lot of understanding and writing added to my woes. But the college provided such great environment of well-qualified staff as well as seniors who helped me everytime
I had doubts. The college also provided stimulating and supportive atmosphere when it came to participation in various cultural activities which I hardly missed. The constant guidance & support provided by them helped me to attain 4th position in final year exams.

That doesn't mean one should turn into a bookworm.
Me and my college friends enjoyed the college life thoroughly from bunking classes, gossiping in canteen in free time, etc. to studying together, participating in cultural activities, organising events and farewells & so on. Being a part of NSS also during college, I learnt a great deal about community service & the real meaning of
'Not me but you'.

From asking advice from seniors to giving advice to juniors, well all grew up in the span of 3 years which passed with a flick of time and we are left with memories only. I seriously owe a big thankyou and a part of my life to my college for shaping into the person I am today.

The only thing that should make leaving college bearable is the hope against hope that you're taking the best part of it with you.
