From The Principals Desk

It is a matter of great pleasure and satisfaction for me that GDC for Women, Kathua is bringing out the annual issue of its Newsletter IRAWATI for the session 2021-22. This entire year remained turbulent in view of COVID-19 pandemic but the faculty members and the students worked vigorously to organize host of online/offline activities in the college, even at national/international level. The college observes a practice of organizing various programmes for awareness like guest lectures, seminars, quiz competitions, symposia etc. related to diverse fields in addition to various activities organized by Career Counseling & Placement Cell, NSS and NCC units of the college on routine basis, with a view that the students must be participative and not passive targets in the class rooms. The COVID-19 pandemic has changed the process of teaching-learning forever with the distinctive use of e-learning where the students as well as faculty members got an opportunity to learn by participating in various online events at national and international level for their personal and professional development. The college Newsletter has given a platform for documentation and dissemination of all these activities of the college which will act as an effective medium for exchange of good practices of the college and related information among all its stakeholders. I appreciate and extend my heartiest congratulations to the convener college publication committee and all its members who have put assiduous efforts for bringing out this issue of Newsletter ready for publication.
